

KENWOOD PARK

Separated from Oakdale Park by the Smoky Hill River and served by two walk bridges, Kenwood, 4.2 acres, is distinguished by an old steam locomotive engine. Two large picnic shelters and playground equipment enhance the outdoor recreational opportunities. The remainder of Kenwood houses much of Saline County's operations, but the Municipal Pool and Bicentennial Center are also located here.

